What is College Camp?

It's a series of 8 workshops, free to all participants, that will go through important aspects of the college application process. Students can attend any of the workshops offered each week, on Saturdays at 10 a.m. or Thursdays at 7 p.m., at Pamlico Books. Each week's Saturday/Thursday sessions will cover the same topic, so students don't need to come twice in one week.

These sessions are geared toward juniors and seniors. On Oct. 9 and 14th, we invite 9th/10th/11th graders to join us for a preview of what's to come -- and what to do now to get ready for college!

Note: Because of space limitations, a maximum of 25 participants will be able to attend each session.

Who is leading the workshops?

Deb Ryan (Miss Deb), whose husband, Tom, owns Pamlico Books. Miss Deb graduated from Princeton University and got her Master's in English Literature from Temple University. She's been teaching since the early 1990s and has taught every grade from pre-K through college (except 9th!). She is a certified college counselor and now owns Empower Triangle Tutoring, a college counseling service, and loves working with students to ease the stress of college applications. Her goal is for all students to understand the process and to have great choices in the spring of senior year!
